About the Candidate

Hello, I am a God-fearing, simple, and family-oriented person from Kochi. I hold a B. Tech in Computer Science and a PG Diploma in Project Management from Canada. I have experience in DevOps and currently work full-time as a Marketing Executive, while also pursuing a short-term part-time role as a Cloud & DevOps Trainee at AkumenbyQ, Kakkanad (Remote) as I work towards re-entering the IT field. I am marriage-oriented, looking to settle down, and open to relocating abroad. I had undergone hair fixing, which I am comfortable sharing openly. Please feel free to get in touch to know more about me.

Expectations about the partner in detail

I am looking for a God-fearing, humble, loving, and caring life partner who values faith, family, and relationships. I would appreciate someone who is respectful, emotionally available, educated, and employed, with a positive outlook on life and a sincere approach towards marriage. A person who believes in mutual understanding, trust, and shared responsibility in building a stable, happy, and fulfilling family life is preferred.

ered. I am planning to move abroad after marriage, and candidates who are open and willing to relocate abroad together to build a family and pursue their career are warmly welcomed.
